

Day 1 Draft Programme: Wednesday 11 September 2019

11:00	Exhibition opens Time to sign in, collect your Delegate Pack, access the exhibition and sponsorship stands around the College main foyer and networking opportunity. Art performances will be held through the morning including a dementia choir, music groups and drama presentations.
12:00	Welcome and Conference opening The conference will officially be opened by the ADSS Cymru President and Social Care Wales Chair.
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch – served in the Exhibition area
13:00 – 17:00 (approx.)	Seminars The first day of the conference features four parallel seminar streams, which must be booked in advance.
	Children’s Services chaired by the All Wales Heads of Children’s Services (AWASH)	Mental health and well-being: suicide and self-harm prevention chaired by the All Wales Adults Services Heads	Developing and supporting a workforce for the future chaired by Social Care Wales and Health Education and Improvement Wales (HEIW)	The A Healthier Wales Transformation Fund chaired by Welsh Local Government Assoc and Welsh NHS Confederation
13:00 – 15:00 (approx.)	Marian Parry-Hughes, Chair of AWASH	Avril Bracey, ADSS Cymru Lead on Mental Health	Mick Giannasi CBE, Chair, Social Care Wales	Chair to be confirmed WLGA / NHS Confed
	Isabelle Trowler, UK Government’s Chief Social Worker for Children and Families	Professor Ann John, Professor of Psychiatry, Swansea University and the Public Health Wales Lead on Suicide and Self Harm	David Pritchard, Hywel Dafydd, Social Care Wales Margaret Rooney, Care Inspectorate Wales Regulation for success – Care Inspectorate Wales and Social Care Wales working together to improve outcomes Commercial break’ videos From WeCare Wales campaign and Accolades finalists.
	Junior Smart, SOS Gangs Project	Emma Picton-Jones and the work of the DPJ Foundation, Mental Health and Men	How can we collaborate, share and celebrate success? Sarah McCarty, Social Care Wales Andrew Bell, Social Care Wales and two practitioners from the campaign. Sue Evans, Social Care Wales, and two previous Accolades finalists. Launch of 2020 Accolades	Regional Partnership Boards 1 – 4

“What matters to me” – hearing the citizens voice

www.nscg.cymru

15:00 (approx.) – 15:30	Tea and Coffee
15:30 – 16:15	Hibo Wardere, Survivor of FGM	Dr.Phil Cooper MBE co-founder State of Mind Sport and Phil Veivers former St.Helens rugby league player and World Club Champion Coach Bradford Bulls Rugby League. They will draw on their knowledge and experience as pro sportsmen, including their experience of mental health, to discuss mental fitness issues in sport and the workforce	‘Commercial break’ - videos from WeCare Wales campaign and Accolades finalists. Jon Day , Social Care Wales Julie Rogers , HEIW Cathryn Thomas , Social Care Wales Caring for the people who care – how the health and social care workforce strategy is taking shape ‘Commercial break’ - videos from WeCare Wales campaign and Accolades finalists.	Regional Partnership Boards 5 – 7
16:15 – 16:30 (approx.)	Summary and Q&A led by the Chair	Summary and Q&A led by the Chair		Discussion and Q&A led by the Chair
16:40 – 17:00			Summary and Q&A led by Sue Evans , Social Care Wales
19.30	Conference Reception followed by Conference Dinner Dance The conference reception and 3-course dinner will take place at the Hilton Hotel . Please note that this event will require a separate ticket to be purchased in advance.

Day 2 Draft Programme: Thursday 12 September 2019

08:30	Exhibition opens Time to sign in, collect your Delegate Pack, access the exhibition and sponsorship stands around the College main foyer and networking opportunity.
09:00 – 09:30	Conference opens The conference will be opened by ADSS Cymru President, Sue Cooper; with an address by our main sponsor.
09:30 – 09:45	Deputy Minister for Health and Social Services, Julie Morgan AM Welsh Government
09:45 – 10:30	Inspirational Speaker: Dr Kate Allatt Locked-in Syndrome survivor, Dr Allatt is an internationally published author and an inspirational and motivational speaker. Kate is founder and CEO of global advocacy charity Fighting Strokes, and a Co-Collaborator researcher at the University of Nottingham.
10:30 – 11:00	Katie Cooke Measuring the Mountain: What really matters in Social Care to Individuals in Wales?
11:00 – 11:30	Refreshments and Exhibition Tea and coffee, access the exhibition and sponsorship stands and networking opportunity.
11:30 – 11:45	WLGA Presiding Officer, Councillor Huw David Welsh Local Government Association
11:45 – 11:55	Citizen Voice 1 - Video The delegation will hear about the lived experiences of people who access care and support.
11:55 – 12:45	Keynote Speaker: Professor Sir Sam Everington OBE, GP Bromley by Bow Partnership, Tower Hamlets Sam Everington is a GP at The Bromley by Bow GP partnership, an innovative community organisation with more than 100 projects under its roof supporting wider determinants of health. He is an advocate for social prescribing and considered a founder of the social prescribing movement. He is also trustee of the King's Fund.
12:45 – 14:00	Lunch and Exhibition + Fringe Events
14:00 – 14:15	Director of Social Services, Albert Heaney Welsh Government
14:15 – 14:35	Motivational Speaker: Josh Llewellyn-Jones, OBE Josh Llewellyn-Jones is the youngest cystic fibrosis warrior to have climbed Mt. Kilimanjaro (17) the 5th person in the world to complete the 24-hour 'World Physical Fitness Challenge' and current World Record Holder for lifting 1-million kilograms in under 24 hours.
14:35 – 14:45	Citizen Voice 2 - Video The delegation will hear about the lived experiences of people who access care and support.
14:45 – 15:20	Inspirational Speaker: Lee Ridley, aka Lost Voice Guy Our award-winning inspirational speaker has achieved success as a comedian who has become a national inspiration for performers with disabilities. A Q&A session will follow.
15:20 – 15:30	Close of Conference ADSS President, Sue Cooper will close the conference, refreshments will follow.
15:30 – 16:00	Cream Tea Refreshments Cream teas to be served in the main foyer. Thank you for your attendance.